

The Story of the Growing Local Garden

We made the doors for the polytunnels and 'furnished' the polytunnel with work tables and a propagating bed. During the Summer of 2010 we edged our main paths and centre circle with timber

During August 2010 we placed our first shed, and covered all the areas between beds with weed membrane. This was later covered with woodchip.

